FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF KINGWOOD

A FAMILY OF FAITH. A HOME FOR YOU.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

MAUNDY THURSDAY

Welcome to this service of remembrance. Tonight we will be together just as Jesus was with his disciples on their last night. We will listen to what he said to them. We will remember what he did in their midst. And as we do, Jesus will be present with us for he promised us, “where two or three are gathered together in my name, I will be in the midst of them.” So as we enter together into this service of remembrance, let us come expecting to sense his presence near each one of us.

Prayer of Preparation

Jesus, we come tonight to be with you. Be present with us we pray. As we gather on this Holy night around your table, come and be our host. Through the ministry and mercy of the Holy Spirit, open our eyes and our ears, our minds and our hearts. Make us attentive to you Lord for you do earnestly desire to share this meal with each one of us. Amen.

*Call to Worship

Leader: Welcome to all who come to the table of Christ. We gather to remember the story of the night Jesus took bread and broke it and gave it to the disciples. Are you prepared to receive bread from a host, whose body will be broken for you?

People: By the grace of God, we are.

Leader: Are you able to allow your Messiah to wash your feet; to listen to him as he says “one of you will betray me.” Are you ready to walk with him to the Garden of Gethsemane; to watch with him and pray that you too will be open to God’s will for your life?

People: By the grace of God, we are.

Leader: Then let us prepare to sit down at the table with our Savior, even in these dark hours!

Prayer of Confession

Leader: As we come to the table tonight with Christ, let us remember who we are.

Unison: Jesus, we seek to follow you. But like your first disciples, sometimes you guide us to strange places. On the first Holy Thursday you directed your disciples to go to an upper room and prepare a meal and then, before they could sit down, you began to wash their feet. We are here tonight Lord, as they were, at your direction. We are here in this room expecting to eat with you. And though our feet may be clean, we confess to you, our souls are not. All of us here need be washed. The memories of things we have said and done that have offended you and stained our lives clings to us. So, in mercy come to us. Take the unclean parts of our lives into your hands and wash them clean with your self-sacrificing love, for you are indeed “the lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.” Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

L. Jesus has washed us. We are clean all over. The stain of our sin is gone. This is the good news of the Gospel.

P. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

L. If Jesus our Lord and Teacher has washed our feet, we ought to also wash one another’s feet. The peace of the Lord be with you.

P. And also with you.
